Very interesting and friendly professor

Made theology interesting for me. I took theology for 4 years in highschool & was not once interested in the subject.

Prof. Mac Gabhan was hands down the ideal Professor I could have as a college student. He was very in tune with the student perspective and frequently went out of his way to help and assist us. Going to miss him.

I thought this class was fantastic; I learned a lot about myself. I learned what I want in life and I love you to thank for it. Without any further adue, THANK YOU!
Also, I did always get a laugh out of this class.

Professor MacLiaban was a very engaging professor. He makes the material interesting and it is clear that he is passionate about Theology. He used real world examples to make the previously-dreaded theology topics more interesting. I think more professors should teach like him.

Professor Mac Galsbann is without a doubt the most interesting teacher I've had at Villanova. He structures the class around topics that stimulate students' minds and make them want to participate in class discussions. He made what could have been a boring required class into my favorite of the semester. He genuinely cares about his students and is always available to help. He is in another league as far as professors go.

The class is very interesting, I love how Prof. MacGahann tried to make/connect theology to modern day behaviors such as hook-up culture. I would recommend this professor to anyone interested on how theology can apply to a ~~the~~ young adults perspective and behaviors.

Amazing Teacher Definitely made my Villanova Experience, very interesting, very engaging very nice.
Definitely does not deserve being removed from the institution and Villanova is losing a great teacher and asset by doing so.

Professor MacGabhann engaged me in a class I thought I would dread and made theology relevant to me. He used creative methods to keep the class engaged + helped explain complex topics we had not been exposed to before. He made theology an enjoyable experience and I have learned a great deal about my faith from this class.

Professor Mac Gabham has been a wonderful part of my freshman year. An effective, intelligent, and helpful professor, he truly understands how to connect ~~and~~ with his students. I wouldn't want to take a theology course with anyone else.

This was my first theology course ever, and it was a good introduction to the subject. I like how the course was focused on Catholicism in a modern context. I wish he wasn't being let go

As I entered the class I did not know what to expect. There was mixed reviews on Theology courses as a whole. I was extremely happy with the way the course was presented. I learned much more than I ever expected. This has opened an entire new interest in religion as a whole. I now look forward to exploring more information.
